PREFACE

It is a pleasant feature to note that only after a lapse of about seven months this second part of the Descriptive Catalogue of the Āgamika Literature gets published. This is due to the fact that this time the progress in printing has been even a little bit more than double of what it has been in the case of Part I.

To begin with, I may say a few words about the procedure adopted in this second part.

As already stated in the preface (pp. xiii-xiv) of Part I of this Volume, the headings of description, the inter-arrangement of descriptive sheets pertaining to the same text, and the matter to be included here were practically decided by Rao Bahadur Dr. S. K. Belvalkar, M. A., Ph. D., the then Hon. Secretary of the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute and Hon. Superintendent of the Mss. Department.

I may however note that some changes have been introduced in the general outlines of this part. The mere expression " Devanāgarī characters" used by me rather reluctantly in the first part and in the first 8 forms of this second part, has been found to be inadequate so far as the special features of most of the Jaina Mss. are concerned. Consequently I have here added the word "Jaina" before "Devanāgarī characters" where necessary. The expression " Jaina Devanāgarī character " is used in Prof. A. B. Keith's Catalogue of the Sanskrit and Prākrit Manuscripts in the Library of the India Office, Vol. II, pt. II, Nos. 7441, 7442 etc.

It is a fact that the Jaina Devanāgarī characters differ in various ways from the non-Jaina Devanāgarī characters. This will be clear from the chart of Jaina and non-Jaina characters given at the end as Appendix I.[1] Since, in this chart some of the Jaina characters usually met with in the Jaina Mss. could not be given for want of suitable types, I got two plates[1] of the same prepared according to my instructions. For the necessary arrangements made in this connection I am indebted to Dr. V. S. Sukthankar, M. A., Ph. D., the Hon. Superintendent of the Mss. Department and the Hon. Secretary of the Institute.

1 Three pages of this Appendix have been printed at the Nirnayasagar Press, Bombay. On p. 2, l. 18 ञ ought to have been placed before ण्ण, and that the special symbol in Hindi ought to have been used for ण्ण.

It has been found that on the whole most of the Jaina Mss. begin in a number of ways, and that therein bhale (भले) styled by some scholars as a Jaina diagram occupies a prominent place.[2] As the necessary type for this bhale was not available while printing Part I, it was omitted ; but now this discrepancy is here removed for which I have to thank Mr. P. K. Gode, M. A., the Curator of the Institute.

There was up till now another discrepancy remaining to be attended to. It pertained to the printing of letter-numerals used for foliation in Jaina Mss. As it was not found possible to do more than to give as approximate a representation of these letter-numerals as was consistent with the materials at the disposal of the press of the Institute, seven plates[3] prepared under my instructions have been given here. In this connection, too, I have to thank Dr. V. S. Sukthankar, who most willingly agreed to get the corresponding blocks prepared, when I drew his kind attention to the fact that I had to deal with a number of Jaina palmyra Mss. forming a very rich collection in the Government Mss. Library deposited at the Institute.

During the course of the printing of this second part, I got an opportunity of consulting Prof. Keith's Catalogue of the Sanskrit and Prākrit Manuscripts in the Library of the India Office. So, from the eleventh form, information about additional Jaina Mss. has been incorporated, and the corresponding information connected with the Mss. described in the first part of this Volume has been

1 See Appendix II, pp. 4 and 5. On p 5 there ought to be ह्रौं instead of ह्रौ, in the small square inside the 51st square.

2 See Appendix II, p. 12.

3 Two of them are given in Appendix III, and the rest in Appendix IV.

given here in the addenda wherein the following three [1] additional works are made use of :—

(1) La Religion Djaïna by A. Guérinot.

(2) लींबडी जैन ज्ञानभंडारनी हस्तलिखित प्रतिओनुं सूचीपत्र.

(3) Die Lehre der Jainas nach der alten Quellen dargestell by Walther Schubring.

The serial number for the Mss. given in the rectangular bracket in the top-line of a page requires a word of explanation. On every even page, a number referring to the Ms. of which the description is continued or in the absence of such a Ms., a number pertaining to the very first Ms. taken up for description, ought to be usually given ; instead of that in the present part the number of the last Ms. taken up for description is given. I was all the while under the impression that this different method was introduced in my Catalogue by the Publication Department and so I did not modify it. But, very recently when I came across a printed form of the Alaṁkāra, Saṁgīta and Nāṭya, the 12th Volume of Descriptive Catalogue of the Government Collections of Manuscripts, I found therein the other method followed. On this matter being referred to the Hon. Secretary, it was decided that the method followed up till now should be given up and the other method should be adopted in order that there might be uniformity as regards the Descriptive Catalogues published by the Institute. Consequently the method adopted in this part as well as in the first part, will be discontinued hereafter.

The system of transliteration followed here is identical with that adopted in Part I as will be seen from page xxiii.

All textual matter which appeared to me to be superfluous is enclosed within rectangular brackets [ ], while additions and alterations, are enclosed within parantheses ( ).

As regards the appendices given in this part, I may say that they are different from those referred to in the preface (p. xiv) of Part I.

1. These have been utilized from p. 221 in this part.

Now a word about the contents of this second part. As is well-known to a student of Jaina Literature the canonical treatises of the Jainas are usually divided by the Śvetāmbara school into six groups, viz. (1) the Aṅgas, (2) the Upāṅgas, (3) the Prakīrṇakas, (4) the Chedasūtras, (5) the Cūlikāsūtras and (6) the Mūlasūtras. Out of these the first three groups have been already treated in Part I. This part, therefore, commences with the fourth group. Over and above this it deals with the fifth group viz. the Cūlikāsūtras along with their explanatory literature as recorded in Sanskrit and Gujarātī languages in the Mss. themselves.

As regards the six Chedasūtras, the Jaina tradition replaces by Jīyakappasutta, the Pancakappasutta (the 6th Chedasūtra) which is not available at present. But, since its cūrṇi etc., are available, herein is given exegetical literature of seven works instead of six only. Furthermore, the two works Jaijīyakappasutta and Saḍḍhajīyakappasutta, each of which is subsequently composed on the basis of Jīyakappasutta, are treated here along with their exegetical literature.

The Cūlikāsūtras contain 2 works viz. Nandīsutta and Aṇuogaddāra.

It may be mentioned that there seems to be no hard and fast rule laid down regarding the order of the six Chedasūtras or the two Cūlikāsūtras; so I need not dilate upon it here. All the same it may be pointed out that the order for the Chedasūtras here adopted agrees with that found in Verzeichniss der Sanskrit und Prākrit-handschriften der Koniglichen Bibliothek zu Berlin Vol. II, pt. II, p. X, La Religion Djaïna, (pp. 78-79), A History of Indian Literature Vol. II, p. 429 etc.

It may not be amiss to say a few words about the contents of the remaining portion to be included in Volume XVII which is devoted to the Āgamika Literature. This portion will deal with the Mūlasūtras, miscellanea and some of the works on Jaina ritualism. As a rule the Mūlasūtras are four in number. Even then under this heading will be given five works viz. Uttarajjhayaṇasutta, Dasaveyāliyasutta, Āvassayasutta, Piṇḍanijjutti and Ohanijjutti. For, out of these five works the first three are universally accepted as the Mūlasūtras, while it is left to an individual to choose either of the last two works as the fourth Mūlasūtra.

Under miscellanea will be included such works as are Āgamika owing to their being appendages of the Āvassyasutta or to their being closely related to the canonical treatises of the Jainas.

The ritualistic works will be followed by the Appendices to be published at the end of Volume XVII under the following heads :—

(1) Index of authors.

(2) Index of works.

(3) Classification of works according to languages.

(4) List of works according to the date of their composition.

(5) Correspondence table of Mss.

(6) Chronological order of dated Mss.

(7) Names of places where Mss. were written and works composed.

(8) Names of scribes, presentees and others.

(9) Abbreviations occurring in Mss.

When the foregoing portion will be printed Volume XVII will be completed, and thereafter will arise the question of bifurcation regarding almost every section to follow. For, so far as the Āgamas are concerned, there is no chance for any bifurcation since the Digambaras believe that all of their Āgamas have been irrevocably lost for ever and thus they have no canonical works of their own. The Śvetāmbaras, however, believe and rightly that except the twelfth aṅga, the remaining Āgamas are not entirely lost and hence they do possess at least to some extent the eleven Aṅgas along with the twelve Upāṅgas etc.

In the end I may gladly and respectfully record my indebtedness to Vidvadvallabha Muni Puṇyavijayjī, a disciple of Munirāja Śrī Caturavijaya and a grand-disciple of Pravartaka Śrīmat Kāntivijaya, who has once more quite willingly rendered to me valuable assistance by going through a duplicate copy of the page-proofs of the non-English portions. I am also indebted to the Secretary and the members of the Executive Board of the Institute for having expedited the printing and thus given an early opportunity to the public in general and the Jaina community in particular to know more about the Jaina Mss. pertaining to this part.

Regulations of the Manuscripts Department

1. "The Government Manuscripts Library" formed and maintained by the Government of Bombay, and formerly deposited at the Deccan College, Poona, is now, subject to the general control of the Department of Education, Bombay, placed under the direct charge of the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, Poona.

2. The Department is administered by a Superintendent appointed by the Executive Board of the B. O. R. Institute subject to the approval of Government.

3. The Manuscripts are available at the Institute, during working hours, for purposes of bona fide study.

4. The Manuscripts in the Library, if, in good condition, and subject to the requirements of Department, are lent out to bona fide scholars on their applying for them in writing to the Superintendent of the Department or to the Secretary of the Institute. Such scholars shall, however, execute a bond for the value of the manuscripts required, this value being fixed by the officers in charge of the Library.

5. In the case of scholars from outside India, all requisitions for loans of manuscripts shall be made to the Secretary of State for India in Council, through whom also the transactions in manuscripts shall take place. Such scholars shall execute the necessary bond with the Secretary of State for India in Council, at his discretion.

6. In the case of scholars in India the execution of the bond shall be necessary before the manuscripts are lent out. When the applicant is not sufficiently known to the Superintendent of the Department, this latter officer shall have the power to call upon the applicant to produce a certificate as to his interest in the study of Sanskrit Literature, and of his being a fit person to be entrusted with Government manuscripts. Such a certificate shall have to be signed by Orientalists of recognised position, or by Government officers of the Provincial or other highest service, not below the rank of a Deputy Collector or Extra Assistant Commissioner. The certificate should contain a reference to works or eassays published by the applicant.

N. B. — In the case of scholars residing within the jurisdiction of a Native State, the certificate may be signed either by the Chief Sahib or the Divan or the administrator of the State.

7. All applications for manuscripts shall state the reasons for which the manuscripts are required and the period for which the loan is sought.

8. If any manuscripts belonging to this Library have been used in the publication of an edition, or in any other learned disquisition, the author should present to the Manuscripts Library a copy of the work or works so published.

9. The number of manuscripts to be lent out at a time to a scholar, and the period of loan, is determined by the officer in charge of the Library. Usually, however, in the case of Indian scholars, not more than five manuscripts are allowed to remain with them at a time, and the period of loan shall not normally exceed six months.

10. Immediately on receipt of manuscripts, the scholars are requested to examine them carefully before signing and returning the receipt-form accompanying the manuscripts, as no complaints will be enteratain thereafter.

11. When the manuscripts are returned to the Library they are duly examined, and if found in their original condition, the receipt formerly signed for them is returned and the bond cancelled. The liability of the borrowers ceases only after the return of this recipt.

12. If scholars find that, owing to the work on the manuscripts not being completed within the stipulated period, they cannot return the manuscripts when due, they shall, sufficiently in advance, apply in writing to that effect to the Superintendent of the Department, or to the Secretary of State for India in Council, as the case may be. The period of loan will be extended at discretion. In no case, however, shall any maunscripts be allowed to remain with a scholar longer than two years in India, and five years outside India.

13. The Manuscripts Department reserves to itself the right of refusing to lend out any manuscript to any scholar at any time, and in the case of manuscripts lent out, of demanding their return before the expiry of the stipulated period, if the manuscripts be required for library or other purposes.

14. All postal charges shall be borne by the applicant.

15. The Department undertakes to procure on loan, for the members of the Institute, manuscripts from other lending Libraries

Size — $31\frac{1}{2}$ in by $1\frac{7}{8}$ in

Extent — 195(?)+2=197 (?) leaves, 6 lines to a leaf, about 125 letters to a line

Description — Palm-leaf somewhat thick and greyish, Devanagari characters with पृष्ठमात्राs, small, clear, uniform and very good hand-writing, this Ms presents an appearance of the work having been written in three separate columns, but, really it is not so, since the lines are continuous, borders of each of the columns ruled in four lines in black ink, leaves numbered in both the margins, in the right-hand one as 1, 2, 3 etc, in the left-hand one as श्री, स्व(? स्व) स्व, मृ, मृ, १ २ ३ र्फ र्नु
etc. the first ninety leaves are very much corroded, some broken into fragments, few leaves at the end sharing the same condition, condition very bad, leaves 1^a and 194^b(?) blank, 6439 verses in all, two blank leaves extra at the end, the work, if judged from the end is no doubt what the title indicates, but, from the beginning it appears to be the text, it is however not possible to ascertain for certain, since leaves in the beginning are in fragments

The 9th daśā gives us a sermon of Mahavira under king Koṇiya, in 39 verses. In the 10th section we find Seṇiya and his queen Cellanā listening to Mahavira's sermon Their splendour etc. detracted the mind of almost all the sadhus and sadhvis and consequently Mahavira delivered a lengthy sermon.

1871-72

Size —$10\frac{3}{8}$ in by $4\frac{1}{2}$ in

Extent — 63 folios, 7 lines to a page, 40 letters to a line

Description — Country paper thick, rough and greyish, Jaina Deva nāgari characters with occasional पृष्ठमात्राs, bold, quite legible and tolerably good hand writing; borders ruled in four lines in black ink, the intervening space between the pairs coloured yellow, every numbered side is decorated with a small design in each of the two margins, fol 16^b spoiled, condition very good, fol 1^a blank, fol 63^b decorated with a design in red ink, incomplete as it ends abruptly at the beginning of the 9th couplet of स्थविरावली, thus only the first part viz Jinacarita is complete, it ends on fol 55b, on fol 1^b we find Gujarāti explanation written above and below the lines of the text, probably in the same hand but the attempt is given up after writing four lines

Age — Not quite modern Author — Bhadrabahusvamin (according to the tradition)

Subject— This work is known as Paryusanā-kalpa and forms the 8th chapter of Dasasrutaskandha, one of the chedasutras already noted This Kalpasutra is divided into 3 vācyas (sections) in Samdehaviṣausadhi, Subodhikā etc, as under—

(1) Jinacarita, (2) Sthaviravali and (3) Samacāri

In Jinacaritra the life[1] of Lord Mahavira occupies the major portion The conception, transference of the embryo and the birth of Mahavira are described in the same way as in Acārāngasutra Then come the 14 dreams, their inter pretation, Mahāvīra's gṛhavāsa, his twelve years' life as an ascetic and his activities for about 30 years after he became omniscient. The description of the biography of Mahāvīra given here reminds one of the Lalitavistarā, a Buddhistic work.

In Sthavirāvalī, we find a list of gaṇas (schools), their śākhās (branches) and the gaṇadharas (heads of schools). The names given in this list are borne out by the inscriptions from the 1st century A. D.

Sāmācārī, a code of rules for asceticism deals with rules and regulations pertaining to pajjusaṇa. This section is looked upon by Western scholars as the oldest nucleus, and they opine that Bhadrabāhu does not seem to be the author of all the three sections which have been united to form a whole in the Kalpasūtra.

1 From Indian Antiquary vol XXI p 212 we learn that according to Weber ' the legendery excursi of the last dasāu (5 8, 9 and 10) in reference to Mahāvīra are doubtless the cause of the introduction of the Kalpasūtra the first part of which treats especially of the life of Mahāvīra '

2 Herein there is a remark as under —

' This work is not by the famous Bhadrabāhu, see Winternitz, Geschichte der indischer Litteratur II, 309 310 (H T Colebrooke)

In the German work (p 309) above referred to we have the following lines —

In dem Kalpasūtra sind drei verschiedene Texte zu einem Ganzen vereinigt, und es scheint nicht gut möglich dass sie alle den Bhadrabāhu zum Verfasser haben

These lines are translated into English as under —

Three different texts are united to form a whole in the Kalpa Sūtra and it does not seem feasible that Bhadrabāhu was the author of all three

As Weber has pointed out Kalpasūtra was the first Jaina text made known in A. D. 1848 to occidental scholars in the very faulty translation of Rev. J. Stevenson. कल्पसूत्र	Kalpasūtra
कल्पलतासहित	with Kalpalatā[1]
No. 520	1129. / 1887-91.

Size.— $10\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $4\frac{1}{4}$ in.

1 Kalpalatā is tentatively placed here, for, without examining all the internal and external evidences it is not possible to fix up its date, and this is not possible here at this stage, so its location here should not be taken to mean that it was composed between 1685 and 1696 years, unless this is supported otherwise. This much is however certain that it is composed in the life-time of Jinarāja Sūri who died in Saṁvat 1699 (I. A. XI, p. 250) and at that time Jinasāgara Sūri was yuvarāja.

Description.— Country paper sufficiently thick and greyish; Jaina Devanāgarī characters; bold, clear, uniform and good hand-writing; borders ruled in two lines in red ink; red chalk and yellow pigment used; foll. numbered in both the margins; a small strip of paper pasted to the fol. 89^b; the last (134th) fol. slightly torn; condition on the whole very good; both the text and the commentary complete. The text is divided into three vācyas as under:—

(1) जिनचरित	foll.	1^b to 103^a
(2) स्थविरावली	,,	103^a ,, 111^b
(3) सामाचारी	,,	116^a ,, 134^a.

The commentary is revised by Harṣanandana and is divided into 9 vyākhyānas. The extent of them is as follows:—

Vyākhyāna	I	foll.	1^b to 6^a
,,	II	,,	6^a ,, 25^a
,,	III	,,	25^a ,, 36^a
,,	IV	,,	36^a ,, 50^b

Age.— Saṁvat 1744.

Vide fol. $6.^a$ Like Kalpalatā, this commentary, too, upholds the view that there are six kalyāṇakas for Lord Mahāvīra. Muni Manisāgara, the editor of the printed work Kalpadrumakalikā has tried to support this view by quoting the following works as a note on pp. 13^a to 18^b :—

(1) Sthānānga (V), (2) its commentary by Abhayadeva Sūri, (3) Kalpasūtra (Pārśavanātha-adhikāra), (4) Acārānga (2nd śrutaskandha, bhāvanādhyayana), (5) its commentary by Śīlānka Sūri, (6) Triṣaṣṭiśalākāpuruṣacaritra (X, 2), (7) Samavāyāngavṛtti, (8) Kalpasūtraniruktī(?a) by Vinayacandra and (9) an avacūrikā of Kalpasutra.

Reference — The text published along with Kalpadrumakalika by Velji Shivji Danabunder, Mandvi, 45 Clive Road, Bombay, with the introduction of Manisāgara in 1918 A D In this introduction the question of believing six kalyanakas is raised and several works and authors are mentioned as supporting this view This topic is followed by the one referring to the taking into account the days of adhika masa Here, too, various authorities, Jaina and non-Jaina are cited as appoving the idea of counting them That mukhavastrika should be tied at the time of vyakhyana occupies the next place Then the last topic dealt with is that the Sadhvis should not be debarred from delivering a sermon, in case there is no Sādhu to do so

Size.— $9\frac{7}{8}$ in. by $4\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Extent.— 84 - 1 = 83 folios ; 9 lines to a page ; 40 letters to a line.

Description.— Country paper thick and white ; Jaina Devanāgarī characters ; clear, bold, uniform and good hand-writing ; borders ruled in three lines in red ink and edges, singly ; yellow pigment used ; foll. 1st to the 64th numbered in both the margins ; the rest, in the right-hand margin only; the fol. 35th apparently missing but as the matter seems to be continuous, it is only a case of wrong numbering of the fol. ; condition excellent. This Ms. contains only the commentary, the original sūtras being indicated by the प्रतीक (see fol. 10). Since it contains four vyākhyānas instead of nine it is incomplete ; No. 533 seems to be its counterpart as that begins with the 5th and goes up to the end; of course the 8th is wanting there. The extent of each of the four vyākhyānas this Ms. contains is as under :—

Subject.— This bhāṣya is different from the preceding laghubhāṣya and is known as bṛhadbhāṣya. It, too, is, however a metrical composition in Prākrit elucidating Bṛhatkalpasūtra. Since this bhāṣya has been composed after laghubhāṣya of Saṅghadāsa Gaṇi, it is styled as bṛhadbhāṣya so that it may be distinguished from the former. Even the cūrṇi and viśeṣacūrṇi have been composed prior to this bṛhadbhāṣya.

पञ्चकल्पसूत्रबृहद्भाष्य Pañcakalpasūtrabṛhadbhāṣya
(पंचकप्पसुत्तवुड्ढभास) (Pancakappasuttavuḍḍhabhāsa)

No. 588 $\frac{1279.}{1886\text{-}92.}$

Size.— $10\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $4\frac{1}{8}$ in.

Extent.— 89 folios ; 13 lines to a page ; 44 letters to a line.

Description. – Country paper thin, rough and grey ; Jaina Deva-nāgarī characters with पृष्ठमात्राs ; sufficiently big, legible, uniform and good hand-writing ; borders ruled in two pairs of lines in black ink ; space between the pairs coloured red ; foll. numbered in the right-hand margin only ; un-numbered sides have a small disc in red colour in the centre only ; the numbered, in each of the two margins, too ; fol. 1ᵃ blank ; edges of the first two and last foll. slightly worn out ; condition on the whole good ; complete ; 2574 gāthās ; extent 3185 ślokas.

Age.— Pretty old.

Author.— Saṅghadāsa Kṣamāśramaṇa as noted on p. 261.

Subject.— The entire work is composed in Prākrit in verses. It elucidates the laghubhāṣya (?) of Pañcakalpasūtra which is considered to be the 6th (last) chedasūtra[1]. It is reported in Jaina Granthāvalī (p. 16) that now-a-days no manuscript of this chedasūtra is available.[2] It existed up to Saṁvat 1612. Hence Jītakalpasūtra is substituted in its place.

Sometimes it is found that the bṛhadbhāṣya of an āgama is preceded by its cūrṇi. It is on this analogy that the cūrni of Pañcakalpasūtra is given a place prior to its bṛhadbhāṣya. So this must be for the present looked upon as a tentative arrangement.

1 Muni Puṇyavijayajī once wrote to me in this connection that Pañcakappa formed a topic of the bhāṣya of Bṛhatkalpasūtra and it was somehow looked upon as a separate treatise as was the case with Ohanijjutti and Piṇḍanijjutti. See p. 298 of my article "The Jaina Commentaries" published in the Annals of the Bhandarkar O. R. Institute (vol. XVI, pts. III-IV). On this page I have further mentioned that Muni Kalyāṇavijayajī has observed that in Pañcakappasutta there is a reference about Kālika Sūri's going to Ājīvika for studying aṣṭāṅga-nimitta.

Reference — This work along with Siddhasena's curṇi etc (pp 1195-1210) was edited in Roman characters by Ernst Leumann and published under the title "Jinabhadra's Jītakalpa mit Auszugen aus Siddhasena's Curṇi" in Sitzungsberichte der Königlich Preussischen Akademie der Wissenschaften, Berlin, 1892 The contents of this edition are noted by A. 1 This is the same verse as occurs in Sādhuratna's vivṛti of Yatijītakalpa (see p. 283). So one may be led to believe that this Ms. contains Yatijītakalpa and not Jītakalpa but then there is another fact to be noted that in that case the number of verses cannot be only 107. So this requires a thorough investigation which is not possible at this stage.

Description — Palm leaf brittle and yellowish in colour, Jaina Devanāgarī characters with पृष्ठमात्राs, big, legible, uniform and good hand-writing this work appears to be written into three separate columns, but, really speaking it is not so, since the lines of the first column are continued in the rest, borders of every column ruled in three lines in black ink, most of the leaves are broken in several pieces, moreover they are not arranged in order, to do so would mean breaking more leaves as the condition of the leaves is very fragmentary, every leaf is numbered in two places, once in the right-hand margin and once in the left-hand one practically as in the case of Ācarārāṅgasutracurni No 8, it is difficult to say where this Ms begins and where it ends, on leaf 291 we have references to यथाप्रवृत्तिकरण, अपूर्वकरण and अनिवृत्तिकरण; सम्यक्त्वलाभादिति गाथादशकार्थः ॥ २०४ ॥

2, 4 In this connection the following remark has been made by the late Prof. William Dwight Whitney in his work entitled "A Sanskrit Grammar' (p 4) —

"The hook above, turning to the left or to the right, is historically the essential part of the character, having been originally the whole of it; the hooks were only later prolonged, so as to reach all the way down beside the consonant In the MSS, they almost never have the horizontal stroke drawn across them above, though this is added in all the printed forms of the characters."

3 See fol. 10^b of No 687 of 1899–1915 (आदीश्वरजीनी विनति)

5–8 The corresponding numerals in Hindi are १, ५, ८ and ९ respectively.

Explanatory Notes to Appendix II

As regards the symbols and characters given in the two plates above, there are good many points worth noting, however, I reserve them for the future I shall here deal with only a few To begin with I may say that some of the characters given here are likely to be mistaken for something else As a matter of fact a few scholars have been already misled, and this has added to the errors[1] of ignorant scribes For instance, it appears that the corresponding Jaina character for धु was mistaken for फ by the late Prof Buhler This caused the late historian Vincent A Smith make the following wrong statement in his article "The Jain Teachers of Akabar published in R G Bhandarkar Commemoration Volume (p 273) —

"No CXVIII commemorates one of these pilgrimages, which was undertaken by Vimalaharsa and 200 others The same inscription states that Hiravijaya belonged to the Sapha race "

Here the word Sadhu is mistaken for Sapha

The late Prof A Weber was misled by the corresponding Jaina ligature for ग्ग He mistook it for ग्र See his Catalogue (Verzeichniss der Sanskrit und Prakrit-handschriften der Koniglischen Bibliothek zu Berlin), vol II, pt II, p 525, l 13[2], p 576, l 9[3] etc There is another Jaina ligature viz one for ज्ज which was mistaken for य्य by this same veteran scholar and pioneer of Jaina studies in Europe See his catalogue of Mss in the Berlin Library (above referred to) vol. II, pt II, p 577, l 25[4]

By the by I may point out that one more ligature of the Jaina script is likely to be mistaken so much so that it may not be even suspected to be a ligature One conversant with the Jaina script

1 Several of them are due to an interchange of letters some of them being as under—

ई and इ ऋ and रि ख and रव च and व त and भ त and न न and म, ग and भ त and न्त म and म्य ग्र and न्न प and य म and स प्र and प्रि म and स स and स्व स्न and म्न, दम and स्म ष्ठ and ष्ट and ड and ह

2 3 Miyagrame is written for mayaggame and pograla for poggala

4 Vaddeyya is written for vadejja knows it full well that ठ when written with its circular bottom to its left stands for ड़ in the Jaina script The late Babu Rajendralal Mitra mistook the Jaina character for ठ as व as can be seen from his work " A Catalogue of Sanskrit Manuscripts in the Library of His Highness the Maharaja of Bikanera (Calcutta, 1880), No 1537[1] (p 702) and No 1780[2] (p 719) respectively

Now I may say a few words about some of the symbols given in the two plates of this appendix The very first symbol given in the first square of the first plate is read as bhale (भले) in Gujarati It may be ornamented at times for which the reader is referred to the 68th and the 69th squares occurring in the last line of the second plate Bhale occurs in the beginning of Jaina Mss in various ways, some ofwhich are as under —

ई ʊ ॥, ॥ ई ʊ ॥, ॥ ए ई ʊ ॥, ॥ प ई ʊ ॥, ए ई ʊ ॥, प ई ʊ ॥, प ई ʊ ॥
प, प ई ॥, ॥ ए ई ʊ, ॥ ई ʊ ʊ ॥, ॥ ई ʊ and । प । ई ʊ ।[3]

The second symbol occurring in the second square of the first plate appears to be the same as one evaluated as ओ by Pandit Gaurishankar Hirachand Ojha in his work The Palæography of India, plate XXVII It is sometimes found in the beginning of Jaina Mss [4], like the one preceding it and the one following it Usually we have the first symbol noted above At times this (ई), too, appears without a portion above the horizontal stroke i e as ए [5] Thus Jaina Mss begin in a number of ways

In Prof A B Keith's Catalogue of the Sanskrit and Prākrit Manuscripts from the Library of the India Office (vol II, pt II) one comes across the phrase " Jaina diagram [6]

A question is likely to be raised here as to what is meant by this Jaina diagram My surmise is that it stands for (1) any one of the first three symbols given in the first three squares of the 1st plate (ii) one of its variants or (iii) the combinations of one of them with or without a danda or dandas and a cipher or ciphers [1]

The sign placed by the letter न in the 34th square, the last but one in the 1st plate is generally regarded as one for anusvara [2] But it appears that in this Ms and some others as well, it is used for a dash and for ornamentation, too [3] It seems it is used for upadhmaniya also as can be seen from "The Palæography of India", plate XXVII

Various signs have been used up till now while combining vowels with consonants In plate No XX given in The Palæography of India there are four distinct ways to be noticed regarding a sign for आ One of them (the sign used for आ in जा) can be compared with what is used here above प्र[4] in the 35th square, the last in the first plate Pandit Ohja has observed on p 3 that this is a mātrā of आ and it belongs to the Kutila script

The sign occurring in the 52nd square (i e the 17th of the 2nd plate) is one we meet with for jihvāmūlīya and upadhmānīya spirants, the 1st when a visarga is followed by क् and ख्, and the 2nd, when it is followed by प् and फ् respectively

The sign given in the 53rd square (i e the 18th of the 2nd plate) stands for the sign of avagraha ('separator') which is used in the Mss for three different purposes (1) to mark the elision of initial

1 While going through this proof sheet I learn that Prof A B Keith has kindly replied to the Curator through whom I had inquired about the Jaina diagram His reply is as under —

" the Jaina diagram referred to normally resembles the first form (ॡ) given in Prof. Kapadia s letter and is sometimes held to be intended as an abbreviation of arha ."

2 Compare the Bengali method of writing anusvāra.

3 On fol 3b of No $\frac{1086}{1887-91}$ (रत्नाकरपञ्चविंशतिका), in the end we have ॥ ॐ ॥

4 For additional examples see the sign above ह्र on fol 1a of No $\frac{237}{1873-74}$ (महावीरद्वात्रिंशिका), the sign on स on fol 3a of No $\frac{1403}{1886-92}$ (ऋषभजिनेन्द्रस्तुति) and the sign on ह on fol 153a of No $\frac{300}{1883-84}$ (पञ्चाशद्विंशिका)

अ after final ए or ओ, (ii) to indicate a hyphen and (iii) to denote a mark of hiatus.[1]

The object in giving the squares Nos 36-46, 65 and 66, 47-49 and 50 is to show how the signs for ikāra[2], īkara, ekāra[3] and anusvāra of the Devanagiri script are written in an ornamental way in Mss

The sign ✓ placed above the kāna of णो given in the 67th square occurring in the last line of the 2nd plate suggests that this kāna is to be deleted. Generally, when a letter is not to be taken into account, a dot is placed above it[4]

It is said that at times a circle[5] is drawn circumscribing a letter to indicate that it is not wanted I do not remember to have noticed it up till now but I have come across Mss [6] where the redundent portion is placed in brackets

4 See v. 142 given on fol 400[b] of Gommaṭasara No $\frac{578}{1875-76}$

5 This circle is called "kuṇḍalana See A Sanskrit English Dictionary (p 235) by Monier Williams Prin K K Handiqui has made a similar remark in his foot note on kuṇḍalana (p 548) occurring in Naisadhacarita (I 14)

Vidyadhara in his commentary to this verse (fol 5b of No $\frac{454}{1895-902}$) makes the following observation regarding kuṇḍalana —

'अन्यदपि यदाधिकं शब्दादि भवति तस्य निरर्थकत्वाद् रेखया कुण्डलना क्रियते।
...निरर्थकत्वप्रतिपादिका कुण्डलना "

Narayaṇa in his commentary (p 13) of the Nirnayasagar edition says —

" वृथा लिखितम्यस्य कुण्डलनया लोप क्रियते '
